FORMED

Our pick of the week is "All That Remains" Produced by Ian Higgins and Dominic Higgins, makers of the acclaimed Fatima film, The 13th Day, this movie tells the inspiring life story of Nagasaki atomic bomb survivor and Catholic convert, Dr. Takashi Nagai. A rich, stylistic blend of live action, CGI, and archive footage, All That Remains brings to life the amazing story of a forgotten hero in the West—but deeply beloved in Japan—and a pivotal moment in history for a new generation, and takes the viewer on a visceral journey of discovery and revelations.

When Japan declares war on England and America, Takashi is convinced that X-ray technology will be in high demand and absorbs himself in his work, risking his health and neglecting his family. But everything changes in a blinding flash, as the atomic bomb is detonated over Nagasaki. Midori is one of the 80,000 souls killed instantly. Takashi, now battling leukemia, left alone to raise their two young children, turns to God for help, and is inspired to rebuild Nagasaki from the rubble and ash. Becoming increasingly bedridden, he begins to write about his experiences. It is through his profound words as a revered man of peace, that a country defeated and demoralized by war rediscovers the healing power of love.
Run Time: 110 mins.

Thank you to all who have helped us prepare for and celebrate our First Holy Communion: Father Wilson, our Catechists and classroom helpers Sharon Davis, Lorraine Goldbach, Cecilia Carlton, Esperanza Badillo, the Hospitality Committee and Barbara Mathis, and the Knights of Columbus.

Thank you to all parents of the First Communicants for all you did to help prepare your child for this special day!

Most especially, thank you for the children, for your example of love for the Eucharist. We hope this is the beginning of receiving Jesus each week in Holy Communion!

We would also like to thank Susie Kaminski, Director of Religious Education, for the wonderful job she has done in preparing these children to receive this sacrament. Her hard work and dedication is seen through each child as they receive communion for the first time today!!
